The U.S. Department of Education has sent the results of your FAFSA application, which indicate that proof of child support paid is required for further processing of your application.

1. Please fill out the chart below for any child support paid by the student or spouse, who is a member of the household, during the year 2013, as well as the chart indicating your number in family/college.
2. Attach official documentation. Documentation can be obtained from the county, and is also printable at <http://dcf.wisconsin.gov/bcs/payments/Logon.htm>.

*Please note this should not include children reported under number in family. If child is claimed as part of the number in family, one is attesting that they financially support that child over 50%.
