Federal regulations require students to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to be financial aid eligible. Students whose financial aid has been suspended for not meeting SAP may appeal for reinstatement due to an extenuating circumstance. Please review our complete SAP policy at www.fvtc.edu/finaid/fasappolicy. An extenuating circumstance is an uncontrollable event such as: unexpected injury or illness of the student or immediate family member, death of the student’s relative, a traumatic event, and other circumstances that adversely affected a student’s academic performance. The following are examples that would not qualify as an extenuating circumstance: transportation issues, roommate conflicts, incompatibility with faculty, difficult course load, dislike of a course, change of program of study and failure to drop classes prior to start date.

Step One: Indicate Your Extenuating Circumstance

- Serious Injury or illness of the student or Immediate Family Member       Death of a relative
- Other: _____

Step Two: Submit a Typed, Signed Written Personal Statement to Include the Following:

- Explain the extenuating circumstance for each term in which you did not meet SAP.
- Describe the steps taken to remedy the circumstance that prevented you from maintaining SAP.
- Explain your plan of action to ensure future academic success.

Step Three: Attach Supporting Documentation

Supporting documentation is required and must include date(s) of occurrence. Please see the back of this form for examples of documents based on the type of extenuating circumstance.

Step Four: Review and Sign

The submission of this appeal does not guarantee reinstatement of aid eligibility. You are strongly advised to obtain alternate financial plans in the event your appeal is denied. If pre-approved, you may be required to set up an appointment with your program Advisor to complete an Academic Success Plan and/or meet with a Financial Wellness Counselor. Only courses applicable to your financial aid eligible program(s) will be included in your credit load for financial aid purposes. Appeals are evaluated on a case-by-case basis and will be reviewed within 15 business days of receipt of ALL required documentation. An incomplete FAFSA or missing documentation will delay the appeal process. The results of your appeal will be e-mailed to your FVTC e-mail.

I have read and understood all the criteria and requirements of the SAP appeal process. Further, I certify that to the best of my knowledge, all the information and supporting documentation with my appeal is accurate and verifiable.
