

FVTC High School Articulation

*The alignment of high school and college curricula to create opportunities for high school students to take college level coursework in order to get a head start on earning college credits while still in high school. Two of the options for High School articulations are advanced standing (AS) and Dual Credit (DC).

Overview Comparison of Advanced Standing and Dual Credit

	Advanced Standing (AS)	Dual Credit (DC)
Agreement	Written AS agreement with specific teacher.	Written DC agreement with specific teacher via a cost neutral contract.
Cost to Student or High School	$0	$0
Where	High School	High School
Length of Course	Per agreement	Per agreement
Teacher	High School teacher with DPI certification in specified subject area	High School teacher with DPI certification in specified subject area
Additional Credential Requirement	none	FVTC application on file and course specific certification
Curriculum Used	High School's course curriculum that has been reviewed and deemed equivalent to an FVTC course	FVTC's curriculum used
Textbook and Resources Used (software, supplemental, etc.)	High school textbook and other resources reviewed and deemed equivalent to FVTC resources	FVTC textbook and resources or agreed upon alternative indicated in agreement
Assessments & Grading	High School requirements reviewed and approved by FVTC faculty	FVTC requirements
Student Expectations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • "B" minimum grade • Must request AS when enrolling at FVTC 	"C" minimum grade
Student Receives	"Advanced Standing" (AS) for FVTC class when they enroll here	FVTC credit and letter grade on FVTC transcript
Transferability	Accepted as AS by other Wisconsin Technical colleges per receiving college's guidelines	Transfers to other colleges as FVTC course credit and letter grade per receiving college's guidelines
Renewal	Annual	Annual

*Other options include Youth Options, Two-Year Youth Apprenticeship Programs, and 38.14 contracted services.

Course specific requirements are listed in "FVTC High School Articulation Guide"