

Dear Craig,

I got the job! Thank you so much for promoting my skills and positive attitude to Colin Lukes of Anchor Financial. I knew I did well in the second interview and thought I had a chance at an offer. Your reference helped to put me over the top! My first day is next week Thursday, and I can't wait.

I so appreciate your kind support and guidance all through my job search process. I'll let you know how things are working out after a couple of weeks on the job.

Gratefully,

Carrie Waller
